

Akasawa Forest Walking Map

Eight walking courses to thoroughly enjoy nature. Breathe deeply of the verdant air.

1. Fureai (Friendship) Path

(round trip 2.8 km / 80 min)

There are no steps, so even those in wheelchairs can enjoy forest bathing on this course equipped with bridges and paved footpaths.

2. Komadori (Robin) Course

(12.7 km / 70 min)

A forest path takes you to giant Japanese cypress trees and where trees were cut for the Grand Shrine. Goes through Maruba Bridge, Dononbuchi Pool, Sawarakubo, and Hashimizu.

3. Mukaiyama Course

(2.0 km / 60 min)

You can enjoy a view of Komagane from the viewing platform.

4. Nakadachi Course

(2.1 km / 60 min)

A 300-year-old tree is a natural treasure. The Japanese cypresses of Tsumetazawa Pass grow as magnolias in June and July. If the weather is good, you can enjoy a view of Komagane from the viewing platform.

5. Tsumetazawa Course

(3.3 km / 110 min)

The Japanese cypresses of Tsumetazawa Pass grow the best in this walking course and are well worth seeing.

6. Kamiakasaki Course

(2.2 km / 80 min)

The best course for seeing many varieties of trees. And from Honkai Pass to the BBQ Site, you can see a mammoth forest.

7. Keiryu (Mountain Stream) Course

(1.5 km / 40 min)

The shortest course that even beginners can take (1.5 km / 40 min). It is the lively mountain stream from Akasawa Bridge.

8. Keiryu (Mountain Stream) Course

(Himejiya Route) (3.5 km / 120 min)

Following Akasawa River's left bank from the Mountain Stream Course, this refreshing long course leads to a legend of tragic love is entrusted.

*au, dacom, and SoftBank cellphones can be used near the parking lot.

Calories burned when walking each course (separately per Agematsu Town Walking Committee's Athletic Division)

